

Animals in Winter

The cold weather disappears. Spring brings sunshine to the forest. All the animals come back.

twinkl.com

5

The turtle stays in the water under the ice. He sits still on the mud waiting for spring.

The groundhog crawls into his den to hibernate. He sleeps for many months.

twinkl.com

The weather is cold. Snow starts to fall.
Where do the animals go?

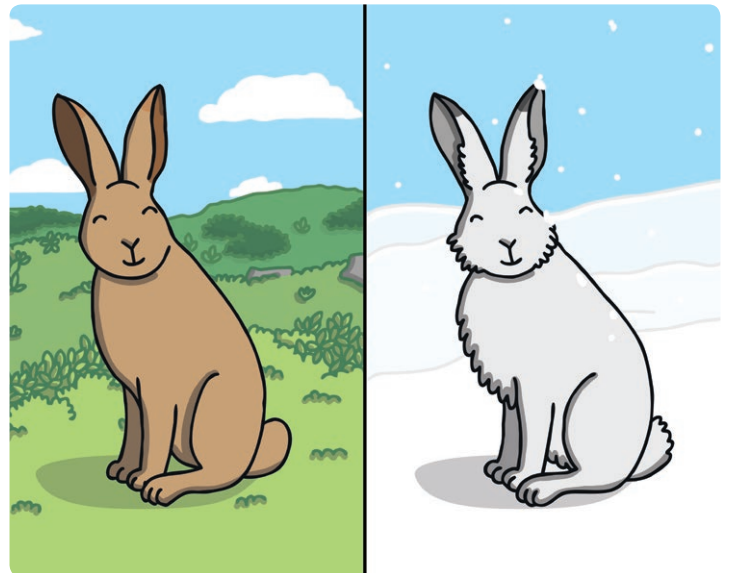

A deer stands in the forest to stay away from cold wind. The deer only moves to find plants to eat.

twinkl.com

The birds take a long flight south to warm weather. This is called migration.

The hare's fur changes from brown to white. She can hide in the snow.

twinkl.com