It was Monday morning and Mr Garcia had gathered Willow Class on the carpet for some exciting news.

"Each of you is allowed to bring in one of your pets from home," he said. "I wonder what special animals we'll get to meet."

"Next week, we're going to be celebrating Pet Day!" he said with a big smile.

As the week went on, the children excitedly told each other all about their pets.

"My cat is so fierce," said Sasha, "you'll have to be careful of his really sharp claws!"

"That's nothing," said Violet. "My pet, Sid, is much fiercer than your cat. His claws are as long and sharp as a tiger's!"

"I love my horse," said Damian. "She's so big and strong!"

"That's nothing," said Violet. "My pet, Sid, is much bigger and stronger than your horse. He could crush a car with his paws!"

"My dog is so messy," said Thea. "Her face gets all covered in food when she eats her dinner!"

"That's nothing," said Violet. "My pet, Sid, is much messier than your dog. He looks and smells like he lives in a swamp!"

"Wait until you meet my pet tortoise," said Riley. "He's so greedy, he eats a whole cabbage to himself every day!"

"That's nothing," said Violet. "My pet, Sid, is much greedier than your tortoise. His giant teeth chomp through twenty boulders a day!"

The days passed and as Pet Day started to get closer,
the children worried about what terrible creature
Violet would bring to school.

"I heard Sid is as big as a house!" said Jamal.

"I heard he hides under your bed waiting to eat you for dinner!" said Chloe.

"I heard even Mr Garcia is afraid of him!" said Sarah.

Even the teachers were talking about Sid.

"I heard he has eyes that glow in the dark!" said Miss Murphy.

It was finally Pet Day and even though the children couldn't wait to show off their own pets, all any of them could talk about was Violet's mystery monster.

"What if he eats all of our lunches?" said Charlie.

"What if he knocks the school down?" said Lee.

"What if he eats all of our teachers?" said Maya.

Mr Garcia called everyone into the classroom.

"Where's Violet?" asked Enzo. "I hope Sid hasn't gobbled her up!"

Just then, Violet stomped proudly into the classroom.
Everyone gathered at the door, desperate to see what kind of creature was following behind her.

They waited and suddenly, Peter cried,
“I think I can see him!”

Violet's mum followed behind, carrying a terrifying...

hideous...

monstrous...

...adorable fluffy
bunny!

This image shows a vibrant, interactive children's book page titled "All About Pets". The title is prominently displayed in large, yellow, 3D-style letters. The page features a variety of colorful illustrations of different pets: a cat, a guinea pig, a fish, a parrot, a horse, a lizard, a snail, a rabbit, a dog, a turtle, and a snake. A central video player icon with a play button is overlaid on the page. On the left side, there is a sidebar with a green header containing the word "its". Below this, there is a circular inset showing a close-up of a rabbit's face. Further down the sidebar, there is a section titled "Would you like to have a pet rabbit?" followed by a list of items: "lettuce", "carrots", "water", and "hay". At the bottom of the sidebar, there is a section titled "real Pets" with four small circular images showing a lizard, a snake, a turtle, and another lizard. A blue arrow icon is positioned in the center of the page, pointing towards the video player. At the very bottom, there is a question: "Would you like any of these animals as a pet?".

The children in Willow Class are looking forward to bringing in their animals for Pet Day.

But as the children discuss their pets, one of them starts to stand out. Is Sid really the terrible monster Violet says he is?
